I am an Ottawa real estate advisor driven by integrity, ambition, and a genuine passion for helping people build long-term wealth through real estate. What began as my personal interest in investing and studying how successful people create financial security has become the foundation of my work: guiding clients toward better opportunities and a more stable future.

MY GOOD STORY A PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Growing up in Stittsville, I've always had a strong connection to this city. Before real estate, I worked in consulting across finance, management, and accounting, giving me the analytical skills and disciplined approach I use today. When I began my real estate career in 2024, my mission was clear — to help clients navigate the market with clarity, confidence, and proper financial understanding.

Clients consistently describe me as responsive, patient, and calm. I take pride in breaking down numbers, explaining the process, and offering honest, integrity-focused guidance at every step. Whether buying, selling, or planning their first investment, my clients know they are in good hands.

Being part of the GoodStory Team strengthens everything I stand for. We are more than agents — we are a family committed to doing what's right, going above and beyond, and acting as trusted advisors to the people we serve. Our focus is not transactional; it's about creating long-term impact and helping clients build real, lasting wealth.

My mission is simple: to help people use real estate as a tool to create opportunity, stability, and a better life — one client and one good story at a time.

A FEW GOOD STORIES—TESTIMONIALS

- “Yannick was great help during the search of my first property. He provided very good insight and helped me learn a lot throughout the process. Communication was easy and he’s always quick to respond. He was great help navigating through the challenges of purchasing my first condo. I strongly recommend to anyone else looking to purchase a property in the Ottawa area.” — François Veilleux, former client
- “We couldn’t have asked for a better realtor than Yannick! As first-time homebuyers, we were both excited and overwhelmed by the process, but Yannick was there every step of the way. From the beginning, his recommendations were spot on, always taking into account our preferences, budget, and long-term goals. He showed a true attention to detail when we toured homes, pointing out both the positives and potential things we might not have noticed ourselves. What really stood out to us was his patience, flexibility, and support. We felt like we were in great hands, and thanks to his expertise and care, we are now proud homeowners! Highly recommend Yannick to anyone looking for a dedicated, knowledgeable realtor” — Olivia Borel, former client
